

Feature in Richmond News, July 15th, 2008

ROBERT SHAER/SPECIAL TO THE NEWS

"It beats being locked in the house," says Vince Tytler who holds tight to three-year-old son Hayden Tytler while he tries his hand at fishing for bullhead from Steveston's No. 2 Road pier during the Sixth Annual Fish for the Future festival Saturday, July 12.

Advertisement in Richmond Review, July 10th, 2008

FISH For the Future 2008

Saturday, July 12th, 2008 • 10 a.m.-3 p.m.

ACTIVITIES:

- family fishing fun (limited number of rods can be borrowed)
- fly tying and casting clinics
- learn to fish lessons
- salmon and birds of prey exhibition
- fish and aquatic insect observation lab
- many other conservation/stewardship activities

EVERYTHING IS FREE!

Website:
www.fishingwithrod.com/fftf
Contact: Rodney Hsu,
604-710-2118

No. 2 Rd. Pier
(London's Landing southern end of No. 2 Road)

See you there!